

The Old West is yours at Rawhide Ranch!

Est. 1963

The Mid-Week Program has been a tradition at Rawhide Ranch for many years and serves young people (ages 7-15) from all over Southern California.

The Mid-Week program can accommodate minimum group sizes of 25 people and maximum of 100 people total (80 students max). The program includes a 2 night stay (Wed-Fri) at the ranch with 6 meals, classes in animal and horse science, vaulting (gymnastics on horseback), riding instruction, animal care time, plus evening activities, campfire and MORE! Riding class is exclusively for children. Minimum age requirement is 7 years of age. Rawhide Ranch provides all program activities.

Cabin assignments will be made using either the Olde Schoolhouse, Fort Rawhide and/or Tee Pee Village. Final group size determines cabin assignment as well as groups for daily classes/activities. On the last day of camp, families can join their camper for lunch before heading home.
